

The Andy Warhol Museum

One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh

Mattress Factory

art you can get into

Famous for 15 Minutes: Portraiture in the 20th Century

A Mattress Factory / Warhol -Teacher Workshop Collaboration

Saturday, March 13, 2010

9:00 AM to 3:00 PM

5 ACT 48 Hours

$40 (Lunch included)

Morning (9:00 to 11:30 AM)

The Warhol Museum

Through gallery talks and activities, participants will compare and contrast the formal aspects of Warhol's portraits (e.g., his use of color and shape, each artwork's overall balance and unity, and the sitter's pose). During the studio component, teachers will learn about Warhol's photographic silkscreen printing process, and then create their own "pop" portrait in the style of Andy Warhol.

Travel to Mattress Factory & Lunch (11:30 AM-12: 30 PM)

Afternoon (12:30 to 3:00 PM)

The Mattress Factory

Participants will study contemporary artists' interpretations of portraiture within the Mattress Factory's current exhibition, Likeness and new permanent installation, It's All About ME Not You, by Greer Lankton. Time will be spent in the MF Studio to explore nontraditional materials to create self-portraits. The day will conclude with a critique and discussion on how to extrapolate both museum experiences into lessons for the classroom.

This project was funded in part by generous support from the Grable foundation as a part of the Charm Bracelet Project Fund.

The Andy Warhol Museum

One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh

Mattress Factory

art you can get into

REGISTRATION FORM:

District: _____ Date: _____

School: _____

Name: _____ Grade Level: _____

School Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Home Phone: _____ School Phone: _____ FAX: _____

Home E-Mail: _____ School E-Mail _____

Make checks payable to: Mattress Factory

Mail to:

Mattress Factory
Attn: Education Dept.
500 Sampsonia Way
Pittsburgh, PA 15212

Class size is limited. Early registration recommended.

Must be received by Friday, March 5, 2010.

Questions? Call (412) 231-3169 or email: education@mattress.org

This project was funded in part by generous support from the Grable foundation as a part of the Charm Bracelet Project Fund.